Feltlines, the VFI Newsletter

Feltlines is published six times a year. It is available as a download from the VFI website, www.vicfelt.org, an environmentally-responsible option we urge you to support. It allows us to produce a full-colour newsletter, with lots of great photographs.

You can request a printed version, but this will only have black and white photographs. Please indicate your preference:

In the interest of being green, I am happy to download my copy of Feltlines.

Please

I prefer to receive a printed version of Feltlines.

Membership List

Each year, the VFI produces a contact list for members who are happy to share this information. The list is not published, online or elsewhere, nor is not given to anyone outside the VFI.

Please circle the information you approve for inclusion:

Membership of the Victorian Feltmakers Inc.

Reg.No. A0034651T

The Victorian Feltmakers Inc. was formed in 1995 and provides a network of mutual support and encouragement for feltmakers through the exchange of ideas and information, meetings and publications. The group promotes the ancient and modern art and craft of feltmaking to the general public and interest-specific groups through a program of workshops, demonstrations and exhibitions.

MEETINGS: third Saturday of even-numbered months, from 11.15 am until 3.30 pm, except December

FELTING*
FRENZIES: third Saturday of odd-numbered months from 10.00 am until around 4.00 pm

VENUE: Hartwell Church of Christ Hall, 246 Highfield Road,
Camberwell, 3124. (Do not use as mailing address)

FELTLINES: our newsletter, published 6 times per year. A great source of information on workshops, techniques, events. Available in environmentally-friendly on-line
and in printed formats.

WORKSHOPS are offered throughout the year, catering for feltmakers of all abilities. Non-members are also welcome. A number of members are available for tutoring, professional advice and commissions.

LIBRARIES: The VFI holds an extensive range of books and magazines about feltmaking and other textile arts.
Hat blocks & boot forms are also available for loan.

FIBRE SHOP: Purchase wool and silk tops, tissue silk, cotton gauze, etc., whilst at a meeting or Frenzy Day.

(*A Felting Frenzy is a day devoted to feltmaking in the company of other enthusiasts. It is not a workshop nor is it a class. Much is learned and shared in this atmosphere. It is strictly members only.)

Objectives of the Victorian Feltmakers Inc.

1. Provide a forum for the promotion of feltmaking in Victoria.
2. Encourage the sharing of information and skills through regular meetings.
3. Acknowledge & respect the ideas and creations of other members.
4. Publish a newsletter for members of the association which provides technical and general information relating to feltmaking.
5. Promote feltmaking to the wider public through the conduct of demonstrations, workshops and exhibitions.
6. Provide a vehicle for government & non-government funding and support for research and development.
7. Liaise with similar organizations & individuals for the mutual benefit of members.

To join the VFI, simply fill in the Membership Form and forward it together with your payment to the address indicated. If you do not have a nominator one will be provided for you.

Note: Like many organizations, it is a requirement of our Constitution that potential members be nominated by a current VFI member. This will be done for you if you do not have a nominator. Please do not let this put you off joining! Soon, our Constitution will be available in PDF form from www.vicfelt.org as a download.
